TOBACCO SELLS WELL AT LIBERTY'S FIRST SALE TODAY

Large Crowd of Growers Gather to Witness First Sale of Tobacco at the Liberty Warehouse Tuesday Morning.

There was a very large crowd of tobacco growers at the Liberty warehouse Tuesday morning to witness the first sale of loose leaf tobacco this season. The sale moved off promptly and the buyers bid rapidly and with much enthusiasm.

Those who witnessed the sale were very much pleased and the growers having offerings on the floor were much pleased with the prices they obtained.

Practically all of the big buyers were represented in the line and every manufacturer was buying grades which they have purchased in years past. All grades on the floor were much stronger than last year and pretty color tobacco sold especially high while the low grades showed strength from the beginning of the sale.

Mr. C. M. Jones, president of the Liberty warehouse company, was in charge of the sale and kept it moving sprightly while Mr. Dan Hardy, who has sold tobacco on the local market for several years, was the auctioneer.

Approximately 140,000 pounds was on the floor and although the sales moved rapidly, the floor was not sold out until late Tuesday afternoon so that no floor average could be obtained at present time. Some of the crop averages in Tuesday's sale follow:

Ora Adams, 2235 pounds at $27.10; Sam Hopkins 2601 pounds at $27.90; Tom Lally 2320 pounds at $35; John Wallingford 1270 pounds at $28; J. W. Carpenter 2920 pounds at $38; Dugay & Lally, 4465 pounds at $25.80; E. W. Carpenter, 2320 pounds at $23.45; Geo. Turner 305 pounds at $39.60; Clarence Phillips, 1650 pounds at $24.90; Chas. Lawrence 2580 pounds at $29.40; Perry Brothers 2580 pounds at $27.25; Alva Ryan 2225 pounds at $24.25; Phillips & Johnson 1210 pounds at $21; T. C. Wilson 2030 pounds at $20.

Sales will be held again Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock and will be continued every day.

NO CAUSE SEEN IN DOUBLE MURDER SCIOTO COUNTY

Curtis Withrow Captured As Caboose at Chillicothe—Had Hugh Nichols and His Wife At Sciotosville.

Portsmouth, Ohio, Jan. 3.—Curtis Withrow, charged with the double murder of Hugh Nichols and his wife at Sciotosville this city Sunday night, turned at Chillicothe, Ohio, night Withrow had boarded bound freight train on the C. Getting cold, he went back caboose.

It is said that the Chillicothe received a "tip" as to his whereabouts. Six officers met the train east Chillicothe. Deputy Sheriff Swiped the caboose and found asleep on a bunk. Awakened, admitted to arrest. No weapon was on him. Later he is said to have confessed to the shooting and added to the statement of officials, he had been drunk for the days.

This is the fifth murder in county since October 21, two were the Newman-Doyle triplets, perpetrator of which has been sentenced to death and been sentenced to the chair, an unknown man who was cut and whose body has been identified. The third, an unknown man who was cut and whose body has been identified. The fourth, shot in an alleyway ten days suspect now being held under indictment in the local court.

The shootings occurred at 12:30 a.m. on Saturday, Dec. 28, at Mr. and Mrs. Fred Burboe's home. Nichols and his wife, instantly, it is charged, while came to the door in answer to Mrs. Nichols then came to the door and Withrow shot her through the heart. It is alleged, the woman was dead before he was shot, saving her death Monday night.

Mrs. Burboe Monday declared there could advance no theory as to cause of the shooting. Nichols, opening the door, spoke only words before he was shot.

Withrow is a telegrapher and was in the employ of the railroad.

MAGISTERIAL DISTRICTS

Squires Dressed in term of a civil court room in the Fifth ward and of a law firm on his state. All of the state institutions reach scores of hundreds in a given area, while the state reaches thousands and hundreds of thousands. The quality of the work done by these organizations, voluntary and involuntary, depends upon the intelligent interest and efficient effort of the membership. The Commonwealth of Kentucky, of which every adult citizen is not incarcerated, insane or feeble-minded is a responsible member has in its custody 7012 wards, for whose care and keeping the state is responsible. Every citizen capable of comprehending the responsibility, desires that these wards shall receive the most humane and scientific care that the state can befit.

The actual number of inmates in the state institutions on November 30, 1921, were: Feeble-minded Institute, 428; State hospital for the insane, 4,552; state penitentiaries, 1601; Houses of reform, 431, total 7012.

The number of children of school age in the state is 653,159. Every right-minded man and woman in the state of average intelligence, wishes for these boys and girls the best educational facilities that the state can provide, from the one room country school, through the High School and the State University. But efficiency in our state penal, charitable and educational institutions depends upon the alert and intelligent interest of every voting citizen. In every state there are three classes of citizens: those who earnestly work for the best conditions and greatest efficiency in the state institutions, those whose unawareness and indifference make a solid wall of resistance to progress and those who prey and graft. The larger the number of the uninformed and indifferent the easier the picking for the inefficient and the grifter, and the harder the pulling for those who desire honest, humane, efficient care of the states' dependents.

Whatever religious or humane motive prompts members of churches or fraternal societies to give efficient care to their beneficiaries, should make the same appeal to the citizens in the discharge of his duty to the states dependent wards and its school children. Indifference to the responsibility, even ignorance of it, does not lift the responsibility. It remains whether neglected or faithfully kept. It is, in part, the function of the League of Women Voters to aid in arousing interest and distributing information with respect to our state institutions.

On January 13, at the court house, Mr. Joseph P. Byers, Commissioner of Public Institutions, will speak on the present conditions and needs of our penal and charitable institutions in which are confined recalcitrant boys and girls, many of whom "never had a chance," men and women who have broken the law, many of them boys and girls grown to men and women and often criminal because of neglect during childhood, and the thousands of unfortunate whose minds have failed them.

What an appeal these 7012 unfortunate ones make to the fortunate men and women responsible for their proper care. Come, hear what Commissioner Byers has to say to us of the best way to discharge our duty to these wards of the state.

On the same occasion State Superintendent of Public Instruction George Colvin will tell us of conditions and needs of our public schools. Come listen to Superintendent Colvin tell how best we can give our 653,159 school children the coming generation of training.

New York Letter

by Lucy Jeanne Price

New York — It may be, as its critics say, that prohibition has dimmed the brilliance of our Great White Way. It is entirely possible that the more or less mystic realm is less intense than it was in "the old days." But it is certainly taking on size — length — with a rapidity which needs no alcoholic stimulant. We won't be able to signify it much longer by the words, "Times Squire." Away up to Ninety-sixth street, it now hakes its way, activity undiminished even its gayety is somewhat modified. Perhaps the quick transit is responsible. Perhaps we really needed more room for our evenings' frivolities. At any rate, theaters are being built up in that Seventy-second-to-Ninety-sixth district, restaurants are blooming, and limousines are as crowded as in the songed and storied "Forty-second and Broadway" region.

—NY—

Eight million outgoing letters and half a million parcel post packages were handled in the New York Post Office one day before Christmas, establishing a brand new record for the city. Twenty-five hundred temporary clerks were added to the regular force for the rush reason, and 414 motor trucks. Sixteen auxiliary stations were opened.

—NY—

It is surprising to hear that women of New York, and they may well be said to be representative of the entire country, do no "blow their own horns" enough. Miss Louise McMasters, head of the Employment Bureau of the National Board of the Young Women's Christian Association, which places more than 70,000 girls and young women yearly, complains that this indifference on the part of women is a handicap. "Women underestimate the difference between bluff and self-confidence, between boasting and self-reliance. Nothing is more dangerous than a false impression. Yet women, by bending almost backward in their conscientious efforts not to make an over-statement, often belittle themselves and handicap their own chances. A financial expert says that women are too timid about selling their services and that a woman presents whatever she is trying to sell in a small way. This is the direst result of a woman's sheltered life and lack of experience in financial matters." To bear out this fact it is cited that women are selected ahead of men for employment bureau heads. They realize the reluctance of their sex to "sell themselves" and will go further in digging out their real qualifications than will a man. The men are also inclined to judge too quickly from appearances. The Y. W. C. A. has been one of the few national organizations with a well-defined employment department for women, and has functioned consistently through the ups and downs in our employment situation. Nearly fifty bureaus in almost as many cities are maintained. That knows how to meet the situation demonstrated in the distribution poster, hung in the railroad station throughout the country, urging girls to stay at home as long as the unemployment situation remains at its high point.

—NY—

Norman Trevor, who made such capital prima donna's husband "Enter, Madame" last season, has produced another married problem play which has just opened at the Princess Theater, "The Married Woman." Mr Trevor himself plays the role of Hugh Bellamy, who proves a "right" man, after "the married woman" has attempted matrimony with the wrong one. He is splendid, as always, and so is Margaret Dale, in title role.

—NY—

The world of the theater may pretend not to take too seriously the world of society and its glitter, but noted the line on the program of "Squaw Man;" "Diana, Countess Kerhill" — Julia Hoyt (Mrs. L. Hoyt). The parenthesis was what attracted my attention. Evidently the world of the theater thought it to add that Social Register to whether it had anything to do with playing of the part or not.

—NY—

Gotham is also interested in the announcement that Ethel Kelly (Mrs. Frank Gould) will be one of the performers in an elaborate show the Shuberts are bringing over from London, called "Pins and Needles." As the Frank Gould divorce case is not yet entirely settled, to Mrs. G. satisfaction, she is expected to be considerably occupied between legal and professional occupations while here.

WARSHIP IS RUNNING ADrift

Cherbourg, France, Dec. 31. British battleship Vengeance, with a small crew aboard, is running adrift before a storm in the English channel this morning, in danger of collision with other craft or of running up on the shore.

The Vengeance, a vessel of 10,000 tons, was being towed by tugs en route to a shipyard to be dismasted. The tow lines parted in the storm, and the crew was unable to get control of the big ship.
